

Chateau Teleki Villányi Alex Cuvée 2017

Premium Selection, red

Origin: Pannon region, PDO

Varieties: 37% cabernet franc – 32% kékfrankos – 31% cabernet sauvignon

Acidity: 4,8 g/l

Alcohol: 13,4 %

Tasting Notes: The deep ruby colored wine is made of such grape varieties as Cabernet Franc, Cabernet Sauvignon and Kékfrankos. The developing layered nose has aromas of plum, cherry and also shows some spicy notes. The full flavored and perfectly balanced palate has underlying acidity that helps to emphasize the fruity character of the wine. Velvety texture with finely integrated tannin. The toasted and sweet spicy notes are in harmony with the fruit taste and increase the complexity of the wine. Perfect for celebrations.
